FLOW represents a modern workday in motion. A confident look designed for active teams. This new GREIFF collection brings together contemporary design and comfort you can truly feel: clean lines, minimalist silhouettes, and premium fabrics with a soft, elegant drape.

Whether in a hotel, car dealership, office, or on the move in other dynamic work environments, FLOW remains flexible, practical, and reliable. Each piece moves with you – helping you handle everyday challenges with ease.

Designed to last, FLOW combines timeless design with exceptionally durable materials. The polyamide used for jackets and trousers is recycled and particularly easy to care for.

FLOW – uncomplicated, flexible, and comfortable.

PURE & CONTEMPORARY

Effortless style. Strong presence.

Sometimes, great style is all about the right feel.

FLOW pieces make a clear fashion statement – without being overpowering. Easy to combine, fresh in appearance, and designed for the ease and flexibility modern workplaces demand.

RELAXED & FLEXIBLE

Designed for active performance.

Where businesswear meets flexibility.

The highly elastic FLOW fabric moves effortlessly with you while maintaining its shape.

Whether in consulting, at reception, or moving quickly between meetings and locations, your look stays sharp – and surprisingly comfortable.

LIGHT & CASUAL

All-day comfort you can rely on.

Your reliable partner from morning to night.

For professionals who are always on the move and value genuine comfort: the breathable FLOW fabric stays fresh throughout long days, regulates temperature, and dries faster than new tasks can pile up.

CLASSY. VERSATILE. REFINED.

FLOW delivers maximum versatility and endless combinations – from sporty blousons and relaxed cardigan-style jackets to modern, clean-cut blazers.

A waistcoat, a classic blouse, and two trouser fits are the perfect solution for every preference and requirement.
